

Noah Cothorn

Noah Cothorn has been a professional musician and singer for over 20 years but became a part of the Atlanta professional music scene in early 2012. Having performed over 2,000 shows since then, he is very comfortable playing to the crowd and delivering performances curated to any genre and atmosphere. From background music to high energy, solo up to a 9-piece band with The Guys in Ties, or DJ services, he is perfect for any occasion.

He was the former house musician for the prestigious St. Regis Hotel and The Georgia World Congress Center for several years, has performed for weddings, bars, corporate events, conventions, private parties, city celebrations, and even for the Atlanta Business Bureau at the Super Bowl. If you want a guaranteed crowd-pleaser that your patrons and guests will be talking about long after the event is over, you will want Noah Cothorn.

Proudly sponsored by Seagull and Godin guitars.

Sample of Past Reviews:

★★★★★ Review by Jordan G.

Wedding Ceremony

Noah is fantastic!!! I can't recommend him enough- if you are looking for a wonderful acoustic guitar player hire him!! Thank you for making our wedding perfect.

★★★★★ Review by Nelly W.

Restaurant Event

Great music! Enthusiastic attitude! Very pleased with Noah! Will definitely use again.

★★★★★ Review by Beth K.

Event

Noah was outstanding! He built the best song list for Workbenchcon. Our conference guests had so much fun and complimented us on his talent several times during our event. We could not have booked a better entertainer- professional, punctual, courteous and very talented!!

